

Early Titles for World Won't Miss you were "Lone or Lonely Soul".

What does the album cover mean?? The hat represents a drug dealer and the tombstones are for all his customers that have died.

Demo tape is out there, yet to be found.

Reverend did tour with Panic and Annihilator, however the tour was cut short, band ran out of money before thanks giving and they had to eat thanksgiving dinner in a bowling alley.

Lots of Video of Annihilator are available from this tour, none has surfaced from Reverend though.

Scattered Wits is a true story. Dennis O'hara wrote the lyrics & it's about ex-metal church bass player Steve Hott.

The Video cost $6,000 & mtv only played it twice, they did not like the subject matter. The snakes name is "Koa" and was Daves. This was filmed in a church.

Favorite show openers were "Gunpoint and "Remission"

Chris Goss, Rocky George, and Damien Circle make up the "The Demonic Tabernacle Choir" (backing vocals).
